

2008 Annual Report

Building Momentum to Better Health

Support

The Foundation is committed to providing grantees with the necessary tools to improve the health of their communities. It takes more than one individual or organization to bring about change. With support, training, and sound practices, nonprofit organizations are reaching larger audiences and sustaining programs for the benefit of all who use their services.

- Community partnerships
- Organizational assessment tools
- Outstanding business practice models